KNOW BEFORE SELECTING A

{Dance Studio }

EAST POINTE DANCE

914 - 202 - 2200 | RYE BROOK, NY

- 1. Experienced Teachers: Friendly and experienced instructors who can adapt teaching styles based on the clientele and studio mission.
- 2. Small Class Sizes: Maximum 12 students for age 2-3 years old, and a maximum of 15 per class for ages 4 and up.
- 3. Proper Dance Flooring: All studio rooms equipped with Marley dance floors which help reduce the risk of injuries, and allow students to dance longer without getting injured.
- 4. Teacher Selections: Choice of more than one teacher for each dance program to fit your child's personality and learning style.
- 5. Studio Mission: What is the goal of the studio? Do they want to immerse themselves in the community, schools, nursing homes, etc.? Do they give back? Do they offer lower income families opportunities to take classes?
- 6. Observing Classes: Viewing windows allow you to observe your child's progress without class interruptions and give small dancers the assurance that their parents are watching them.
- 7. Desk Staff: Available to assist you during all teaching hours, everyday. Having a bi-lingual staff or faculty member is a plus.

THE ULTIMATE DANCE ACADEMY

- 8. Free Trial Classes: Try a style you've never taken before without worrying about the price.
- 9. Studio Location: Secure building, ample FREE parking, on the ground level.
- 10. Programs: Be sure to check out the studios advanced dancers! This will show you the potential your dancer has for growth, the evolution of the studios training process, future opportunities that will arise, and the level of dance that they consider "advanced". Are these students successful? Happy? What paths are they considering after high school?
